VOL. IV.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPT. 5, 1893.

NO. 6

County Superintendent's Report of Schools.

Old Frog Pond District, No. 7.—120 pupils 100; draws from State $285; number enrolled by teacher 90; highest number present at one time, 66; lowest, 43; present to-day, 63; Miss Clay Walloway, than whom there is no better school-room worker in the county, alive, systematic, methodical, aggressive, yet faithful and patient; her school is too large, or the house is too small; the trustees are good school-men and are willing to do anything they think will advance the interest of the school; in looking over the ancient history of this district, we find that not far from the present site stood the old school-house where the pupils became famous for their "long standing" in the spelling classes while the words were pronounced by that venerable old teacher, Uncle Ben Graves, hence the subject of spelling was suggested and the class consisting of Misses Emma McCormick, Julia Williams, Letta and Milla Wills, Patti Fankler, Ocie Watts, Rebecca Ledford, Sarah, Julia, Wills and Hattie Conner; these bright girls, with their lessons well prepared, were confronted by five well-known teachers, Charley Williams, Emmet Ledford, Turner Powers, Ocie Williams, John Neal and Everett Wills, any or all of whom were ready to catch any word the girls might miss and then make it awright with the girl who missed it; only three misspelled words, and the girls caught more than their share. Second, Third readers, eight in one class and nine in the other, all read well and all deserve a favorable mention; the same has been said of the geography classes and the classes in arithmetic and primary spelling; it is a pleasure to visit this school, two bright little boys, Tom Fankler and Clay Jones, make up the primary class.

Science Hill District, No. 33.—100 pupils 78 children; draws $222.30; highest number present, 74; lowest, 48; present, 44; school flourishing; house will be finished before cold weather; trustees very proud of their school and seem to take great interest. B. F. Reesor, the popular teacher, has had considerable experience and has first-class qualifications and is teaching a good school; pupils look neat and are busy and quiet; Barry Hawkins, Alvin Coburn, Randall Jannett, Claud May, Floyd White, Walter and John Reffett constitute as good a Third reader class as I find; fourteen small little boys and girls form the Second reader class; all read well; Misses Dora May, Emma Carter, Alva Richardson and Maggie White, four young ladies in their teens, read well from Fifth reader. This is the second school these people have had in their new district; the question now is, how did they ever get along without it? Ephraim May, Henry Perkins, J. J. Coburn and Wm. Brown and several others of the parents, in fact, all, deserve credit for the interest they have taken in the school affairs here.

Circuit Court.

The deceased was unmarried, and a brother of T. H. McCarthy and Mrs. David Gay. His funeral was preached by Rev. A. J. Arrick at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

CLEVELAND RETURNS

TO WASHINGTON GREATLY IMPROVED IN HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

The Ways and Means Committee at Work on a Revised Tariff Bill.

Speaker Crisp and Czar Reed.—Cleveland's Return.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 3, 1893. President Cleveland, in accordance with the announcement made when he left Washington, just after the extra session met, is back at his desk in the White House and his appearance is the best refutation of the many silly sensational stories that have been published within the last week about the dangerous condition he was in. He probably never dreamed, when he was having those two troublesome teeth extracted and their ulcerated roots cut out, two months ago, that it would by and by grow into an operation in which the greater portion of his jawbone would, in the mind of the sensational writer, have to be cut away in order to remove the terrible cancerous growth. In short, it was but another version of the familiar old story of the man who vomited three black crows. President Cleveland is not sick, and he has not been sick since he left Washington. In fact, there were few days while he was away that he did not perform some of his public duties, as the records in the office of his private secretary will show.

The passage of the bill for the unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law by the House focused public attention upon the Senate, where financial speeches are now the order of the day. How long the Senate will talk before voting is a question that will be answered differently by nine out of every ten men in Washington. Two weeks is the shortest time given by anyone, and the longest goes away up in the months. An agreement of some sort will have to be reached before a vote can be taken, and the silver Senators declare they will make no agreement, unless the Vorhees bill, which has been reported as a substitute for the Wilson bill that was passed by the House, is amended in a manner satisfactory to them. The Democratic leaders, however, are confident that an agreement will shortly be reached.

Procrastination may be the thief of time, as the old school adage says, but it isn't getting a chance to steal much of it from the House, Ways and Means committee, which has buckled right down to the tariff question with the determination to report a reform tariff bill at the extra session, or very early in the regular session. While the committee is not disposed to encourage long-drawn-out hearings of every Tom, Dick and Harry who may think himself a tariff expert, it will grant proper hearings to all parties who by reason of their prominence in lines of business that may be affected by a change in the tariff have a reasonable right to be heard. The hearings began Monday, August 28, and end September 30.

Speaker Crisp did a very unusual thing when he called Representative Richardson, of Tennessee, to the Speaker's chair and descended to the floor of the House to reply to the attack and uncalculated attack which ex-speaker Reed made upon the new rules of the House. Mr. Reed was surprised and before the Speaker got through disgusted to find himself justly held up to the scorn of the House and the Country for having falsely claimed that the new rules were in the line of the notorious rules with which he gagged the House of the Fifty-first Congress. It is not the first time that Mr. Crisp has proven himself more than a match for the Maine blusterer, and it will not be the last. The difference between the new rules of the House and the notorious Reed rules is precisely that between the Government of the United States and the Government of Russia—the new rules put the authority of shutting off the debate in the hands of the majority of the House, where it always belongs, and the Reed rules put it into the hands of Reed, making him more of an autocrat than would be tolerated in any legislative body of the world.

It is queer how some things work. It is now said that Col. Charles P. Lincoln, who was Deputy Pension Commissioner under Raun, and who has lately gained notoriety by publicly announcing his intention to test in the courts the right of the Commissioner of Pensions to suspend pensioners except in cases where fraud is proven to have been used in securing the pension, got the scheme up for no other purpose than to boom his candidacy for Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. at the coming encampment of that organization at Indianapolis.

It is regarded as significant that Speaker Crisp should have attached "I am in Washington on that date" to his acceptance of an invitation to deliver a short address at the centennial celebration of the saying of the corner-stone of the Capitol, to be held on the 18th of September. It is taken to mean that Speaker Crisp thinks that the extra session may adjourn before that date, and consequently that the Senate will be prompt in acting on the Vorhees bill.

Married, at the Christian church, Thursday, August 31st, at 8 o'clock p. m., Miss Maude M. Clarke to Rev. William M. Forrest, of Baltimore, Md.

The large church was simply but beautifully decorated, and was filled to overflowing long before the hour announced for the ceremony.

To the sweet strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March the ushers moved down the aisles, followed by the two bridesmaids, who stepped upon the pulpit platform and gracefully held back the lace draperies which covered the rear doorway. The bridal party passed through the aisles, grouping themselves in the lovely as the bridal couple came to the front, facing the audience. They were made one in a short but impressive ceremony by Rev. H. D. Clarke, father of the bride. They passed down the aisle and out the front door.

A reception was given to quite a number of their friends. The handsome paragon was looking his best; the parlor was decorated with palms and smilax. The bride and groom stood under a canopy of green to receive congratulations. The dining-room was a study in pink, and amply repaid the care and labor of the deft and willing fingers which had turned it into such a thing of beauty. An elegant luncheon was served at 10 o'clock.

The bride wore a heavy white silk empire gown on train. The four bridesmaids, all cousins of the bride, Misses Eiss, Hodges, Dickerson and McElhinny, were also in white. The groomsmen were Messrs. Bolton, Clarke, Boardman and Stoffer.

The presents were many and handsome.

Mr. J. D. Forrest, from Columbus, Ohio, with his bride, were here. The two aunts and the venerable grandmother of the two young ministers came from Baltimore to be present at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest go immediately to Hiram College, Ohio, to take a year's course, though Mr. Forrest has already some pastoral experience, having had charge of two churches. He will find his work greatly supplemented by his talented, energetic, christian wife. Her place here in the Church, Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor Society can not be filled. We know that in the years to come "many will rise up and call her blessed."

The Kentucky Parlor, World's Fair.

BOARD OF LADY MANAGERS. WORLD'S COLUMBIAN COMMISSION. Miss Carter, Chairman of the Committee on Decoration of the Kentucky Room:

Dear Miss Carter: The Board of Lady Managers of the World's Columbian Commission desire to express through you their thanks and appreciation of the beautiful colonial room which Kentucky has presented to the Woman's Building. We know how largely the charming effect produced is owing to your own personal tastes and supervision and we anticipate the delight which the many women from all over the country will experience in visiting it.

With sentiments of the highest consideration, we are, yours sincerely,

SARAH S. C. ANSELL.
CLARA E. TRATHCER.
MISS K. S. G. PAUL.

The following description is from the Art Amateur, the leading art journal of the land, which also publishes a large engraving of the parlor: "The Kentucky Room opens out of the Cincinnati Room and is one of the most beautiful interiors of the Fair. It was designed by Miss Carter, of Louisville Ky., and is an excellent adaptation of the graceful Colonial style to modern needs. The mirror over the mantel, with its elegant tracery, looks in our illustration like a window because of the clearness with which the reflections of the opposite corner and draped doorway (into the Cincinnati room) have been reproduced. The little festoons and wreaths and the beads in the lower part of the channeled pillars and pilasters are pale yellow; the general tone of the room is a light cream-color, the panels a dull pale pink, and the fireplace is in gray marble, with an inner border moulding. The pots which hold the palms are of blue china. On the side opposite to that shown is a harpichord of elegant design, which, with the portraits of Kentucky worthies and the graceful silver candelabra on the mantel, are genuine Revolutionary or Colonial relics. It was intended that the two fluted niches, one on either side of the fireplace, should be filled by marble statues. The mouldings, capitals, wainscot and all the wood-work of this room are thoroughly well wrought from good designs."

The woodwork in the Kentucky parlor is for sale at the close of the Fair, and it was put up and fitted together with that end in view. It is very handsome and will be well worth purchasing. In addition to the wood-work there will be five chairs, a rug and two jardinières to be sold, which it is hoped will come to Kentucky as souvenirs.

Miss Carter will be glad to furnish any information desired as to above articles.

The Senatorial Precinct Convention.

The precinct meetings for the selection of delegates to the Convention to be held at Paris, September 11, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for State Senator, from the counties of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery, were held on Saturday afternoon. There was little interest manifested in the race in this county, the people here desiring that Clark should settle the matter, besides both Messrs. Gay and Holloway were so acceptable to our people that they did not seem much to care which should be selected, since we would get a good man in either case. The only incident of any note here was a little scrap between two quick tempered gentlemen of the Second ward.

The vote stood in Montgomery as follows:

Mr. Sterling—1st Ward, Holloway—4; 2nd Ward, Holloway—4; 3rd Ward, Holloway—4; 4th Ward, Holloway—4; 5th Ward, Holloway—4; 6th Ward, Holloway—4; 7th Ward, Holloway—4; 8th Ward, Holloway—4; 9th Ward, Holloway—4; 10th Ward, Holloway—4; 11th Ward, Holloway—4; 12th Ward, Holloway—4; 13th Ward, Holloway—4; 14th Ward, Holloway—4; 15th Ward, Holloway—4; 16th Ward, Holloway—4; 17th Ward, Holloway—4; 18th Ward, Holloway—4; 19th Ward, Holloway—4; 20th Ward, Holloway—4; 21st Ward, Holloway—4; 22nd Ward, Holloway—4; 23rd Ward, Holloway—4; 24th Ward, Holloway—4; 25th Ward, Holloway—4; 26th Ward, Holloway—4; 27th Ward, Holloway—4; 28th Ward, Holloway—4; 29th Ward, Holloway—4; 30th Ward, Holloway—4; 31st Ward, Holloway—4; 32nd Ward, Holloway—4; 33rd Ward, Holloway—4; 34th Ward, Holloway—4; 35th Ward, Holloway—4; 36th Ward, Holloway—4; 37th Ward, Holloway—4; 38th Ward, Holloway—4; 39th Ward, Holloway—4; 40th Ward, Holloway—4; 41st Ward, Holloway—4; 42nd Ward, Holloway—4; 43rd Ward, Holloway—4; 44th Ward, Holloway—4; 45th Ward, Holloway—4; 46th Ward, Holloway—4; 47th Ward, Holloway—4; 48th Ward, Holloway—4; 49th Ward, Holloway—4; 50th Ward, Holloway—4; 51st Ward, Holloway—4; 52nd Ward, Holloway—4; 53rd Ward, Holloway—4; 54th Ward, Holloway—4; 55th Ward, Holloway—4; 56th Ward, Holloway—4; 57th Ward, Holloway—4; 58th Ward, Holloway—4; 59th Ward, Holloway—4; 60th Ward, Holloway—4; 61st Ward, Holloway—4; 62nd Ward, Holloway—4; 63rd Ward, Holloway—4; 64th Ward, Holloway—4; 65th Ward, Holloway—4; 66th Ward, Holloway—4; 67th Ward, Holloway—4; 68th Ward, Holloway—4; 69th Ward, Holloway—4; 70th Ward, Holloway—4; 71st Ward, Holloway—4; 72nd Ward, Holloway—4; 73rd Ward, Holloway—4; 74th Ward, Holloway—4; 75th Ward, Holloway—4; 76th Ward, Holloway—4; 77th Ward, Holloway—4; 78th Ward, Holloway—4; 79th Ward, Holloway—4; 80th Ward, Holloway—4; 81st Ward, Holloway—4; 82nd Ward, Holloway—4; 83rd Ward, Holloway—4; 84th Ward, Holloway—4; 85th Ward, Holloway—4; 86th Ward, Holloway—4; 87th Ward, Holloway—4; 88th Ward, Holloway—4; 89th Ward, Holloway—4; 90th Ward, Holloway—4; 91st Ward, Holloway—4; 92nd Ward, Holloway—4; 93rd Ward, Holloway—4; 94th Ward, Holloway—4; 95th Ward, Holloway—4; 96th Ward, Holloway—4; 97th Ward, Holloway—4; 98th Ward, Holloway—4; 99th Ward, Holloway—4; 100th Ward, Holloway—4.

The Cost of an Ex-President's Manuscript.

As an illustration of the money to writers as soon as they acquire a reputation, the September Cosmopolitan contains less than eight thousand words, for which sum of sixteen hundred and sixty-six dollars was paid.

Ex-President Harrison, Mark Twain and William Dean Howells are the three whose work commands such a price. The September number has more than one hundred illustrations, giving the chief point of interest in the Columbian Exposition, and the Fair is treated by more than a dozen authors, including the famous English novelist, Walter Besant; the Midway Pleasure, by Julian Hawthorne; Electricity, by Merritt Halstead; the Liberal Arts Building, by Kunz, the famous gem expert of Tiffany & Company; the Department of Mines, by the chief of that department, etc.

A feature of this number is a story by Mark Twain, entitled "Is He Living or Is He Dead?"

Mass meetings were held at the Court-house Saturday in the counties of Wolfe and Morgan. Legislative districts, and selected delegates to meet at Campion, Wolfe county, Monday, the 4th inst., and declared J. W. Steele, of Morgan, the Democratic nominee. Mr. Steele is a number one man, and will make a number one Representative.

THE ADVOCATE.

Prof. Felix L. Oswald predicts this country will have 300,000 inhabitants in 1893.

The big Neldinghaus tin-factories at St. Louis resumed operations Tuesday, over 2,000 men going back to work.

In Berlin there are said to be 16 nobles, seven retired army officers and three clergymen employed as cab drivers.

In 1892 New York City paid for its school bill $4,000,000; for its amusement bill, $7,000,000; and for its drink bill, $60,000,000.

The ann never sets on the soil of the United States. When it is 6 p. m. on Atto Island, Alaska, it is 9:36 a. m. of the day following at Eastport, Me.

The health department of Berlin reports that the juice of a lemon and orange, or of the acid it contains, is fatal to the bacilli of cholera. Those who use it freely are not subject to attacks of the disease.

The notes of the Banque de France are made of white water-laid paper, printed in blue and black, with numerous mythological and allegorical pictures. They run in denominations from 50 francs to 1,000 francs.

A number of Colorado Republicans are quoted as advocating a new political party, which shall have as its platform the free and unlimited export of silver. The party proposes to favor free trade as a retaliatory measure on Eastern Republicans for their attitude toward silver.

Birds and bird-meat, the society of man—that is, they seek the locality where fields and gardens abound, for they find better than human industry exports from the soil the products upon which they subsist. A Maine bee culturist says it is the rarest thing in the world to find bees away from the settlements, or from openings where flowers grow. It is in the small forest patches they are oftenest found, and generally not far from the edge of the woods. It is the same with birds. There are no song birds in the northern Maine wilderness, and scarcely any thing can be called bird life. Birds cluster around towns and villages.

The strawberry planting should not be neglected in the fall. It is during the season between strawberry-picking and winter that the crop for next season is determined. Some growers concentrate all their efforts on the strawberry in the spring, thinking to make a crop by cultivation and manure. But all the buds for spring flowering are produced in the fall. Manuring in spring may increase the crop by swelling the fruit to larger size, but it is then too late to increase its number.

Do not allow the fence-buildings to lack paint. The cost is covered by the saving in lumber which results, and the improved appearance is worth something.

The good gardener makes successive plantings so as to have a supply of vegetables all through the season.

The increasing Use Of Eyeglasses.

Any one who goes among the summer hotels or resorts where numbers of people are congregated is constantly struck with the increasing use of spectacles and eyeglasses among young people. It would seem that almost one-half of our boys and girls from five to fifteen find need of assistance to vision. The smallest youngest now talks about astigmatism and myopia in quite a learned way and the flash of his glasses as he frolics about in the sunshine or bends over his oatmeal is quite hiding. The young girl looks innocently out upon the world through gold-bowed spectacles, and the young man carefully adjusts his eyeglasses before venturing upon tennis or cricket. The increasing use of glasses among American people is very noticeable. Whether it is the effect of our rapid development and more luxurious civilization, or merely mere attention is now paid to correcting defects than formerly, is a question for specialists. Meanwhile it would appear that the apparent need of the race for better eyesight would, according to the doctrine of evolution, bring about a change in future generations, who should either be endowed with telescopic eyes or with some sort of new optical arrangement of increased power. That our eyesight is failing is an evident and melancholy fact.—Boston Courier.

THE WORLD'S FAIR

As a Field For Foreign Missionary Work.

In the Commercial Gazette of Aug. 20, we find the following account of the conversion of two Japanese gentlemen to the Christian faith. Dr. Black, pastor of the Central Christian church, Chicago, is well-known and greatly beloved by many of the people in this section. The Commercial Gazette says:

"Two sons of Japan, who were sent to Chicago to represent Japanese Government at the World's Columbian Exposition, have been converted to Christianity. They are I. Yoshikawa, of Tokyo, and S. Minano, of Osaka. Rev. W. F. Black, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, Thirty-seventh street and Indiana avenue, converted them. Mr. Yoshikawa is one of the interpreters for his Government at the Fair, while Mr. Minano is Commissioner. Both are intelligent men. They have been baptized in the faith of the Christian Church, and upon their return to Japan they intend to establish missions in all the large cities of their native land. Dr. Black thinks their conversion will have a wonderful influence upon Christianizing the land of the Mikado.

On one of his visits to the World's Fair, about two months ago, Dr. Black was introduced to Mr. Yoshikawa. He found him a remarkably intelligent person, with a thorough knowledge of the English language. Mr. Yoshikawa was educated in London, and his family is one of the best in the Japanese Empire. For several years he taught the English language in his native city of Tokyo. He was at one time military interpreter for his Government. When the Mikado's representatives were looking for the best man in that country to be sent to the World's Fair, Mr. Yoshikawa was one of the first to be selected. He had been in the United States on a pleasure tour some years ago, and had visited all the large cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, being a close observer of things, he gained a wide knowledge of the American people, and had put into practice some of the ideas he had learned here.

Mr. Minano, of Osaka, is one of the most prominent men of that city. He speaks English fairly well, and is an excellent French scholar. In speaking of the conversion of Mr. Yoshikawa and Mr. Minano, Rev. Dr. Black said:

"I was out at the Fair one day with a friend of mine, who introduced me to Mr. Yoshikawa. I found him such a bright conversationalist that I sat down and talked with him for more than an hour. At our first meeting I never dreamed that he would become a convert to Christianity. In fact, we did not have much to say upon the subject of religion. When I left, I gave him my card and invited him to come to my house when he had an opportunity. A few days after that I went to the door one evening after dinner in response to a ring, and agreeably surprised to be confronted by my Japanese friend. We spent a pleasant evening together, and upon his departure I invited him to come to my church the next Sunday night.

"He came, and seemed to be greatly interested in the services. Wednesday evening prayer-meeting found him at the church again, and he has been coming regularly ever since. On his third or fourth visit he brought his sister with him. She is an accomplished young woman, and like all the families of Japan who belong to the higher class, she is a very modest person.

"I visit the Fair two or three times each week, and whenever I went there after this I always called at the Japanese Building to see Mr. Yoshikawa. A warm friendship sprang up between us, and after I got to know him well I asked him if he would like to embrace the Christian religion. He said he had been thinking of it since his first visit to my church. It was not a very hard task to teach him the truth of the gospel, and he possessed his faith two weeks ago Saturday. The next night he came to the church and was baptized.

"The church was crowded that evening—more than a thousand persons being present. Mr. Yoshikawa sat among the worshippers. When I asked if anyone present wished to accept the Saviour, he came forward, and I immersed him. He made a profession of faith, and said that he wanted to live the Christian life. A few days after that Mr. Yoshikawa came to my and told me that he had a friend who expressed a wish to join the church. This friend was Mr. Minano. He was baptized last Sunday evening, and we expect others of the Japanese Commissioners to embrace the Christian faith before the close of the World's Fair. I have been talking with the Turkish Commissioners, and it is probable that some of them will be converted to Christianity in the near future.

"Mr. Yoshikawa has a wife in Japan. He has told me that as soon as he goes back home he will have her converted, and together they will establish missions throughout the Japanese Empire. I have converted both of these converts that the Christian religion is the true one, and they are anxious to establish in Japan the Christian civilization. Two weeks from to-morrow night Mr. Yoshikawa and Mr. Minano will give a free tea at the church. On that occasion they will publicly declare their faith in Christ. The influence that these converts will have among their people in Japan can not be calculated."

The way she looks troubles the woman who is delicate, run-down, or overworked. She's hollow-cheeked, dull-eyed, thin, and pale, and it worries her. Now, the way to look well is to be well. And the way to be well, if you're any such woman, is to faithfully use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That is the only medicine that's guaranteed to build up woman's strength and to cure woman's ailments. In every "female complaint," irregularity, or weakness, and in every exhausted condition of the female system—if it ever falls to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

The Mt. Sterling "Gas It," called for short "Gazette," a Republican sheet whose sole aim in life seems to be to echo the worst saying of the worst element of its party press, and to advocate the extremist and most villainously vile measures, the most partisan of its party leaders may suggest, has been filling its columns for some time past with charges that the present financial depression is due to a lack of faith on the part of the people, in the present Administration. Now "Gas-It" must know the utter falsity of its assertions, if it knows anything. But its distinguishing characteristic: bitter and unrelenting hatred of a Democrat will not allow it to keep any where near the line of truth if misstatement of fact will accomplish its purpose.

The "Gas-It" knows, if it knows anything at all, that the three most notable achievements of the Republican party in late years have been:

A pension list of $150,000,000 a year.

The McKinley Tariff Inquiry.

The Sherman Silver law.

This vicious legislation, together with much more of even a deeper and more devilishly vile character, which was attempted by its party, and to which "Gas-It," notwithstanding its poorly attempted denial, gave its sanction, and denominated "wise and patriotic" measures, was seen with alarm by the American people. The rocks upon which we were being driven by the viciously iniquitous measures of the Republican party, became apparent to the entire nation; and from Canada to the Gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there swept over the land a determination to drive this party from power. The people saw that extravagance, cowardice and ignorance had so involved the finances of this great country that it would be a miracle, almost, if the direct consequences did not result. They indignantly hurled this infamous party from power, and by a vote unprecedented in American politics, they said this party should no longer hold the reins of government. It was one thing to drive a party from power, it was another to avert the consequences of this party's actions whilst in power. We are now reaping the whirlwind of destructive financial distress for which the Republican party sowed the seeds in its vicious legislation of years past. The people unfortunately saw too late, to avert them, the consequences of this sort of law-making. They kicked the miserable set out of doors and put in servants who will do what they can to remedy the consequences of lawlessness enacted. "Gas-It" wailed the "bloody ally" till the rotten old rag fell to pieces in its hands. Now it has the supreme audacity to attempt to dry out the present financial distress is due to the lack of faith on the part of the people in the Democratic party, which he knows we are simply dragging to the dogs the very Republican legislation has prepared for us.

The McKinley Tariff Inquiry.

The Sherman Silver law.

Don't dipson them "Gas-It," as you did that "wise and patriotic measure" they are yours. All the long list of evils they have brought on the country with them, lie at your door also. Come, "Gas-It," no dodging.

Old "Gas It" (alias Gazette) vende Democratic candidates to give to it their announcements in order to take the money it thus procures to fight Democratic nominees.

A very large congregation was out to hear Rev. A. J. Arrick, of the First Presbyterian Church, on Sunday night. Prof. E. S. Fogg was with the choir and assisted in the music, which was said by those who heard it to be very fine.

HOW ABOUT

HARD TIMES?

Are you a supporter of the present financial system, which congests the currency of the country periodically at the money centers and keeps the masses at the mercy of chance, or do you favor a broad and liberal system?

LIBERAL SYSTEM

Which protects the debtor while it does justice to the creditor? If you feel this way, you should not be without that great champion of the peoples rights.

THE Atlanta Weekly Constitution

Published at Atlanta, Ga., and having a circulation of MORE THAN 150,000. Chiefly among the farmers of America, and going into more homes than any weekly newspaper published on the face of the earth.

It is the Biggest and Best Weekly Newspaper published in America, covering the news of the world, having correspondents in every city in America and the capitals of Europe, and reporting in full the details of the debates in Congress on all questions of public interest.

THE CONSTITUTION

Is among the few great newspapers publishing daily editions on the side of the people as against European domination of our money system, and it heartily advocates:

FIRST. THE FREE COINAGE OF SILVER. Believing that the establishment of a single gold standard will wreck the prosperity of the great masses of the people, though it may profit the few who have already grown rich by Federal protection and Federal subsidy.

SECOND. TARIFF REFORM. Believing that by throwing our ports open to markets of the world and levying only enough import duties to pay the actual expenses of the government, the people will be better served than by making them pay double prices for products of other lands.

THIRD. AN INCOME TAX. Believing that those who have much money should bear the burdens of government in the same proportion to those who have little.

Expansion of the Currency

Until there is enough of it in circulation to do the legitimate business of the country. If you wish to help in shaping the legislation of the government to these ends, GIVE THE CONSTITUTION YOUR ASSISTANCE, lend it a helping hand in the fight, and remember that by so doing you will help yourself, help your neighbor, and help your country!

AS A NEWSPAPER:

This Weekly Constitution has no equal in America. Its news reports cover the world, and its correspondence and agency are to be found in almost every hall-way in the Southern and Western States.

AS A MAGAZINE:

It prints more each quarter as is ordinarily found in the great magazines of the country than can be gotten from even the best of them.

AS AN EDUCATOR:

It is a valuable medium within itself, and a years' reading of THE CONSTITUTION is a liberal education as anyone can see.

AS A FRIEND AND COMPANION:

It brings cheer and comfort to the dreariest every week, is eagerly sought by the childless, contains valuable information for the mother, and is an encyclopedia of instruction for every member of the household.

ITS SPECIAL FEATURES

Are such as are not to be found in any other paper in America.

The Farm and Farmers' Department, The Women's Department, The Children's Department,

Are all under able direction and are specially attractive to those to whom these departments are addressed.

Its special contributors are writers of such world-wide reputation as MARK TWAIN, BRET HARTE, FRANK R. STOCKTON, JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS, and hundreds of others, with it offers weekly service from such writers as BILL AMP, BARGE PLUNKETT, WALLACE P. REED, FRANK L. MT. STERLING, KY.

James Cockroft, Jr., is quite sick with typhoid fever.

Born, September 1st, to Thomas Borts and wife, a daughter.

James T. Highland will be married to-morrow, Wednesday 6th, to Miss Mary E. Clay of this county.

George Hockaday, of Gainesville, Georgia, has rented the residence of L. M. Phipps, on North Mayfield street. Mr. Hockaday expects to engage in some kind of mercantile business.

We are in receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Winchester Fair, September 12-16. Thanks, gentlemen, we will be among the many from this county who will attend your excellent meeting.

"Times are too hard, stop my paper." The gentleman who penned these words is a miller. His business depends on consumers, those who are able to pay. Stop my paper! Let this be a command and everybody be compelled to obey, what would become of my paper? Information is not imparted, progress is at a standstill, and mills are shut down.

"When will these hard times end?" said the laboring man to a gentleman buying in business. As soon as people of the towns go to work and save their earnings and the farmers leave to their farming in the fields, and the country boys, quit talking about hard times, have faith in the Administration, and all will be well.

Henry Watson is a candidate for re-election to the office of Councilman of the Second ward, and of course his candidacy is subject to the will of the Democracy. Mr. Watson wishes his claims to be passed on, and to be judged for the future by what he has done for the city in the past. He believes merit should win, and asks the support of his party upon his allegiance to its principles and his real worth as an official.

The C. H. & D. Railroad have issued a handsome panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of the principal buildings, etc. Also a handsome photographic album of the World's Fair buildings, either of which will be sent to any address postpaid on receipt of 10 cents in stamps. Address D. G. Edwards, General Passenger Agent, World's Fair Route, 900 W. Fourth street, Cincinnati, O.

We, this week, announce Jo M. Conroy and Charles G. Glover as candidates for Councilmen from the Fourth Ward of Mt. Sterling. These two gentlemen are well fitted for the position. They are young men who are aggressive in their ideas—active and energetic, who have no axes to grind, belong to no clique or ring, and only agreed to become candidates at the urgent request of their many friends who believe, as we do, that they will make most acceptable city officials. We most cordially commend these two young business men to the Democratic voters of the Fourth Ward.

Mr. Herbert B. Kinsolving asks the Democracy of Montgomery county to give him the nomination for County Judge. He has been slow to publicly declare his candidacy, but other candidates having announced, he felt it was due to himself and his friends that he should let his plans and wishes be known. Mr. Kinsolving was born and raised in Ohio county, Ky., where before he was twenty-two years old, he was elected County Attorney. For four years he filled this responsible position, how creditably it may be judged, when his people at the end of his term nominated him for Representative in the General Assembly, and elected him by a routing majority, he running over two hundred votes ahead of the State ticket. All this speaks volumes for him. He came to Montgomery to make his home among our people, and his life is known to all since he lived among us. His work for the Democracy in the last Presidential campaign, in this and other counties, is well known to our people. He respectfully asks your votes.

A PIECE OF GALL.

A prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination to one of the foremost county offices, said to us a day or two since: "The editors of this Republican sheet, the Gazette, have more gall than I have ever seen enclosed in the same compass. One of them had the supreme impudence to ask me to announce my candidacy for a Democratic nomination in his paper—this, too, when every page of his paper teems with abuse of Democrats and Democratic measures. He must take me for a fool when he expects me to give him my money, to the better support him in a fight against me if I shall receive the Democratic nomination." This Democrat takes the correct view of the matter. We have said before—we repeat it—there are two Democratic papers in the county, one of the other of which reaches every Democratic voter within its limits. Announce in them. But you have no right, when you are expecting those same Democratic papers to support you, after you shall have received the nomination, against the attacks of the Republican Journal, to furnish it means with which to carry on a campaign against yourself. Business is business, and politics is politics. When it comes to politics keep your munitions of war as far as possible out of the hands of the enemy.

Mr. J. W. Chennault asks us to say to the people of Montgomery, that he desires to serve them as Jailor. He has been a Democrat, always. Comes of a family of Democrats, and has been an active worker in the party since his majority. He served this county as Sheriff—has lived among us all his life and his entire record is known to all. When financial distress overtook him, he met it like a man, and came out of the trouble clean-handed. He thinks his services to the party in days gone by, entitles him to ask that it shall outburst him with the nomination for Jailor; and he promises, if elected, to make the county an efficient office.

Mr. James Best asks of the Democracy an endorsement in the shape of a renomination for Jailor of the county. He was called upon to take the position of Jailor to fill out the unexpired term of one of the most popular officers the county ever had, and one who was killed whilst in the discharge of his duty. The fact that he made a wonderfully acceptable official under such circumstances speaks more for him than any words we could write. There are few men indeed who could have so successfully filled the position to which he was called; under all the circumstances, the Democrats will make no mistake in giving James Best a renomination for the office.

Are You Nervous?

Are you tired out, do you have that tired feeling or sick headache? You can be relieved of all these symptoms by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives nerve, mental and bodily strength and thoroughly purifies the blood. It also creates a good appetite, cures indigestion, heartburn and dyspepsia.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy in action and sure in effect. 25 cents a box.

Mr. J. Will Clay, one of our best most young business men, and one who is closely identified with Mt. Sterling and all her interests, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Councilman from the First ward. If there can be found a better man than Will Clay for Councilman, we would like to know who he is. We are always glad when we can support such a man as Mr. Clay for public office.

J. C. Back, attorney at Jackson, was nominated Democratic candidate for the Legislature from the counties of Lee, Breathitt and Magoffin, on Wednesday, by acclamation. Mr. Back is a staunch Democrat and has the confidence of his party. He will doubtless have a Republican opposition, but Mr. Back will have a complete walkover.

To the Democrats of Montgomery County.

My duties as deputy clerk in the County Clerk's office, prevent me from making an active canvass at present. I hope to see each of you personally before the election, and I ask of you to consider my claims before pledging to other candidates in the County Clerk's race. I am running this race alone, and am not, nor will I be connected with either of the gentlemen who are candidates for County Clerk, reports to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Your Obedient Servant,
W. B. O'CONNELL.

RELIGIOUS.

Elder T. G. Lester, of Virginia, and Elder Gold, of North Carolina, will preach at Southern Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 7 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Licking Association of Particular Baptists will meet at Mayslick, Mason county, Friday 8th and continue three days. R. M. Hubbard and wife, J. W. Ratliff and wife will attend as delegates from here.

If elected Mayor I shall most certainly be elected by the people for the people, without prejudice or promise, and will fill the office to the very best of my ability. I refer to my record while a committee from the Commercial Club on streets before the Council, as to the interest I take in what I think to be for the city's good. I was the first to lay my claims before the people and expect to be elected. Rich or poor man, if I promise you this, I will be Mayor to all alike, and this is all I pledge I make.

Yours,
W. R. KUNNELLEY.

The Chairmen of the Democratic Committees of the counties of Breathitt, Wolfe, Morgan, Owlesley and Magoffin, the 34th Senatorial district, met at Jackson, Breathitt county, on last Wednesday, and decided to hold preliminary meetings on September 22d, county meetings at the Court-houses in each county on the 23d inst, and a district convention at Jackson, Breathitt county, September 26th. Each candidate to be given his strength. The candidates are Col. John P. Sawyer, of Morgan; Hiram Owlesley, of Owlesley, and S. S. Combs, of Wolfe.

The good success Dr. Stockdale has had with his numerous patients in this vicinity is the result of his thorough education and knowledge of the disease he makes his specialty. He can cure all cases now does he claim to. His careful mode of examination and his familiarity with the slightest changes in the different organs enable him to tell at once whether or not a cure can be effected. His ideas are new and his methods the latest. He solicits all who are suffering from chronic or nervous troubles to see him and learn his methods. See him at National Hotel, Wednesday, September 13.

S. P. Hunt, one of the most prominent farmers of this county, on last Saturday made an assignment to Dr. J. A. Shirley for the benefit of his creditors. We have been unable to learn the condition of his affairs and hence can not approximate the amount of his indebtedness or resources. At the same time his son, R. J. Hunt, and his son-in-law, J. J. Hunt, are assigned to John Morris. They are of the very best men of Montgomery county, and no man will read this item who will not have the deepest sympathy for them.

But little has been said recently of the gas and oil prospects. In the meantime Adam Baum continues to ply the drill. He is not talking just now, but if we should make a guess we would say the well is about 600 feet deep. Experts claim that gas and oil both abound here, and a well sunk to the depth of 1,200 to 1,500 feet would reach it. Mr. Baum will go that depth should he not find it sooner.
